

Allie Greene

January 15, 2026

Allie was the happiest, silliest, most full of life dog you could ever meet. She never met a stranger, and tried to make friends with anyone she could. I'm sure she thought that the man from the pound just wanted to take her for a ride, and had no ill intentions at all...

She loved a good car ride, sliding down the hills in our yard, and jumping in the lake like she was Superman.

I'm sure that she has already found her brother, Buddy, and her sister, Diamond in Pet Heaven. They were probably relaxing somewhere, and got a little annoyed when they realized she would be there to keep them occupied from now on.

We love Allie so much, and will never forget the beautiful memories that we made while having her as a part of our family. We are devastated that she isn't here with us anymore, but we are so blessed that we got 11 amazing years with our girl.

Love you Allie-bug. Have fun up there.

Tribute Wall

AG

“ Allie was the happiest, silliest, most full of life dog you could ever meet. She never met a stranger, and tried to make friends with anyone she could. I'm sure she thought that the man from the pound just wanted to take her for a ride, and had no ill intentions at all...

She loved a good car ride, sliding down the hills in our yard, and jumping in the lake like she was Superman.

I'm sure that she has already found her brother, Buddy, and her sister, Diamond in Pet Heaven. They were probably relaxing somewhere, and got a little annoyed when they realized she would be there to keep them occupied from now on.

We love Allie so much, and will never forget the beautiful memories that we made while having her as a part of our family. We are devastated that she isn't here with us anymore, but we are so blessed that we got 11 amazing years with our girl.

Love you Allie-bug. Have fun up there.

Amy Greene - January 22 at 03:28 PM