

Axel Barnett

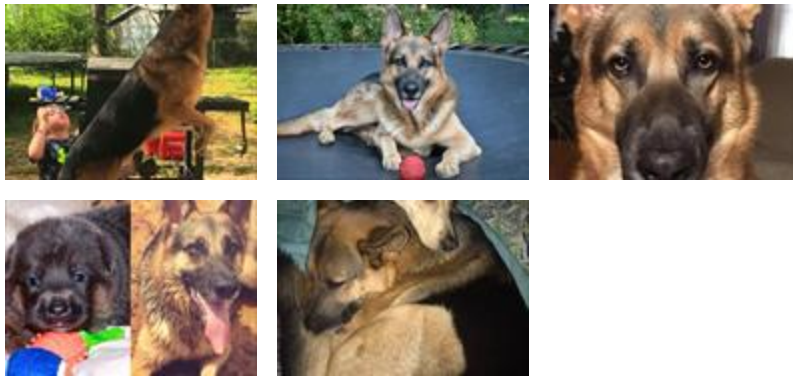

December 12, 2024

(Axle) Rose Barnett-10 of Hanceville ,Al passed away December 12th, 2024 surrounded by love. He was a big boy with a big personality. He was an ESA to a combat vet ,who turned into the rock of his family. Everyone who knew him loved him. He enjoyed jumping on the trampoline ,car rides, swimming, running, his Kong ball, bubbles, the occasional costume, cuddles, steak, and most of all his family. He is survived by his mom and dad, 2 human siblings, and 2 fur siblings. He lived a long and happy life protecting his family and friends. He was cherished and loved beyond compare. He was irreplaceable and will be greatly missed. - We all love and miss you big boy, run free!

Tribute Wall

HB

“ (Axle) Rose Barnett-10 of Hanceville ,Al passed away December 12th, 2024 surrounded by love. He was a big boy with a big personality. He was an ESA to a combat vet ,who turned into the rock of his family. Everyone who knew him loved him.He enjoyed jumping on the trampoline ,car rides, swimming, running, his Kong ball, bubbles, the occasional costume, cuddles, steak, and most of all his family. He is survived by his mom and dad, 2 human siblings, and 2 fur siblings. He lived a long and happy life protecting his family and friends. He was cherished and loved beyond compare. He was irreplaceable and will be greatly missed. - We all love and miss you big boy, run free! 💕💕

Haley Barnett - January 08, 2025 at 12:09 PM