“ I remember my dad and sister picked up Bama and came and got me from school when I was a kid. I was so excited and I knew she would be a great dog for us. For years we would throw tennis balls to her, go on walks with our other dog, Daisy, and even when she got older and tried to run off, she was still a great dog. I can't imagine growing up without her. She was there when I turned 10 to me getting married. I'll never forget all the smiles and laughs she gave me. I hope she's playing with a million tennis balls in doggy heaven. I love and miss you Bama Girl <3 -Lacey

“ Bama was the sweetest, most loyal girl. She loved our family and her buddy, Daisy. As a younger pup, she liked nothing more than chasing tennis balls. As she got older and couldn't chase them anymore, she still loved to carry them around. Bama was a huge part of our family and she will be forever missed. ”
