“ His momma called him Fathead and is was truly a term of endearment. Barney was a handsome, svelte fellow that wooed the girls - and maybe some boys, too. I loved the photos of him and hearing about his antics. I knew he was a bed hog, too. Missing you buddy boy. Fly high and have a hiss or two at my angels too, will you? Love you and Lori.

“ Barney was a stray cat who I had seen in my neighborhood. He was a full-grown male. I fed him on at least 2 occasions, but it was when I returned home from a scuba diving trip that he captured my heart. As I rinsed diving gear in my driveway, he again showed up for a feeding. Only this time I decided to bring him inside. Once done with the gear, I returned to my dining room, to find him curled under my dining room table, fast asleep. He was never to be a stray again
