“ We got Bear when he was approximately 6 weeks old. He would fit in the palm of your hand. From the start he wanted to either sleep or go like crazy, no in between. We were taking our time choosing the right name for him. I was filming an Erwin football game at McAdory and took him and Chad Hurst with me. He kept walking around the press box trying to see what everything was, as always, and he was about to be near my camera cables so I scooted him back and told him 'NO'. He growled at me like he was some 10 foot tall creature and like he would tear me apart and I said 'Oh you are such a Bear'. Chad said 'Coach Dudley that's it'. I had no idea what he was talking about and he said, 'Bear, that's his name'. Well everyone was happy with it and we never looked back. For almost 17 awesome years he was always Bear till his last breath. He had to be the most appropriately named 'Big Man! there ever was. Will miss you always ole buddy.
