

Belle Alston

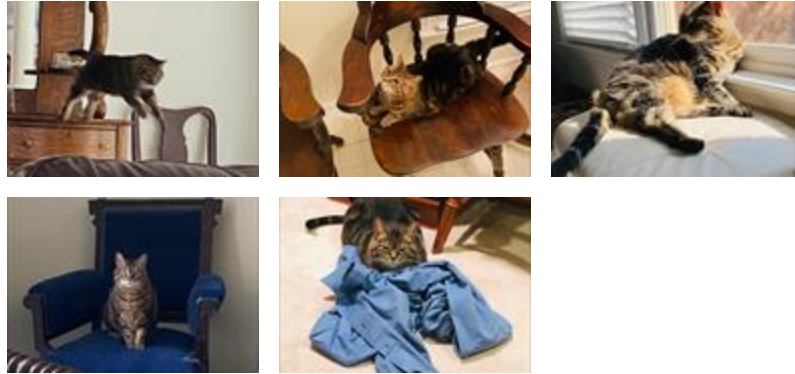

September 7, 2023

"I adopted Belle in February 2010 from a local vet's office. Her previous owner had left her at their front door one night in a box with a note stating that they couldn't keep her anymore since she had become pregnant. They estimated her age at the time as about 18 months. She had her babies there, which were adopted out. Not being a kitten, she was a tougher adoption sell, but I thought she would be a good fit for me, so I told them I would give her a try. Almost 14 years later, here we are. She didn't have a mean or aggressive bone in her body and I miss her all the time." - Jimmy Alston

*She was such a sweet, lovable little girl who was always grateful to have a wonderful person. You gave her a life and a home where she knew she was loved!
I'll miss her "guiding me" to her favorite spots to be petted!*
