“ Belle Terry passed away on August 11, 2019, surrounded by her loving daddy, Jon David Terry, her mama, Kristi, and her grandmama , Betsy (YaYa) Terry.

Belle appeared at Jon David's door in the spring of 2010, a few months after he lost his beloved Jed. It was as if they needed each other! We never knew where she came from, but she knew she had found a loving daddy in Jon David.

Belle's quirks soon endeared her to all her friends and family. She was scared of storms, even before they were apparent to the human ear. And her biggest fear was tile floors!

Her favorite pastime, up until she became too old to enjoy it, was chasing a tennis ball or golf ball. She would chase and chase and swim and swim until she almost dropped!

She was the sweetest dog ever and can never be replaced.

We miss you, Belle, but know you are happy in Heaven on the other side of the Rainbow Bridge, chasing your balls. We will see you again one day. Tell Jed and Jack we said hey!
