“ One of the last pictures my daughter took of Bender Boo while she was cuddling with her. I miss her gorgeous face every day. ”

“ Bender was the best kitten in the world. At only 6 months old, her light was so bright. She left us entirely too soon and I'll miss her night time snuggles up to my arm and neck to get comfy to finally fall asleep, and waking up to her happy face every morning. She had an old soul about her, and was the perfect companion in every way.

She came into my life at just 3 weeks old as I was fostering her entire litter. 5 tiny solid black kittens entered my life and the only way to tell them apart was by the different collars I purchased for them. Bender stuck with me from day one, and latched onto my heart. I couldn't adopt her out, I knew she needed to be with me for forever.

On her last day with us, she laid in my bed with me and we took long cat naps together. I talked to her and told her how much I loved her. And this was all before I knew something was severely wrong. All she wanted was me. And now I'd do anything to have her back with me just for one more day.

I love you Bender Boo, more than all the stars in the sky. I know her spirit stays by my side every day as it was her favorite place to be.

I know I'll see her again across the rainbow bridge.
