“Sadly, Carleycat and I never got to meet Bobthecat but I feel as though we knew him well. He was obviously the most special boy and so loved by his family. I’m glad I got to know him and love him from afar. ❤️

“Bobthecat was my youngest, furriest, and most talkative brother. He has been described as a very magical kitty, and I’ve never seen any evidence to the contrary. Bob took wonderful care of his humans, showering them with love, constant attention, and baths. Even some of his stranger habits, like eating glasses and computer keys, slurping his food juice, and hiding his toys so well that no one could find them, were endearing. Bobthecat was the sweetest boy and I will miss his lap naps and froggy meows forever.
