“ All my life I've had dogs who were supposed to be MY pet. Almost every time they would end up preferring somebody else over me. When I saw pictures of this one online, I knew I wanted him. When I brought him home he was immediately, undoubtedly MY dog. He followed me every step I took. If I sat down, he was in my lap in seconds. He would follow me to the bathroom and wait. He would stand in the kitchen by me when I cooked. When I sat on the porch to swing he would jump up and swing with me. When I went to bed he would curl up right beside me every night. I miss him as much as I would my own heart.
