“ Well Bud, we are 3 months in with Lula...boy is she a wild child. She doesn't sleep like you used to or how Bella does. But she is growing on me. I sure do wish you could teach her not to bark so much. Just so you know I still miss you so much and I still lve you to the moon and back.

“ Hey Bud...i guess you know by now that I got a new puppy.....I told you I would not replace you and I promise I am not. Lula is a miniature long haired Dashound. She is so cute. And of course Bella hates her. But you know Bella doesn't like anyone. I think Lula is going to be more of a daddy dog more than a momma dog. But thats ok because I had you and you were the best.

“ So Bud, I lied...I can't let you go. I think of you all the time. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you. You were such a big part of my life and now you are gone. One day it will not hurt as much, but right now it just breaks my heart over and over. I love and miss you so very much. Love Mom

“ Hey my sweet Bud...I sure do miss you. I guess after 15 years it's hard to move on. But I am trying very hard. I am sure it's gonna take a little bit longer than I thought. Bella is still missing you too. So go say hello to Mama and give her a big ole sloppy kiss for me. I love you!!

“ Another week has gone by, and still you are on my mind alot. Bella went to the vet Thursday...told them I prefer not to be in room 3....I think I would have had another melt down. It was 2 weeks to the day you had crossed that rainbow bridge. But I know that you are having a great time, so I am gonna go now...I love you so much!!

Bud I still miss you so much. This is one of the hardest things I have ever experienced. You were so loved and such a sweet guy..you were my baby. I still cry every now and then for you. Especially sitting around here at night when we are watching tv and Bella is where she always is right by my side. I love you Bud and you will always be in my memories and my heart ❤️

“ Well Bud, it's been 2 days since we picked up your ashes....and I still miss you as much as the day you died. Everyone says it will get better as the days go by. But you knowit doesn't get better you just have to learn to deal with it. Since you have been gone Bella sticks to me like glue. She wanted me to tell you hello and she misses you too.

“ Bud you will always be in my heart. A piece of my heart was ripped out when I had to have you put to sleep. Just know that you will always be loved and never replaced. I love you...Mom
