

Buttons Irwin

May 23, 2025

Buttons was my precious little bitty. She had all of us trained as she was the queen of our house. She never met a stranger. She loved pets from everyone. Our house isn't the same without her. I miss all of her personalities and quirks. Walking backwards through doorways, finding the stinkiest things to roll in and "helping" me work during the day from my lap or desk. Love you always sweet girl
