“ This is Camo, my grand-dog and my sons companion for 13 years or longer, he’s been his support and side kick. When he was younger he went everywhere with him, he was very well trained and truly was the best dog ever. Aaron loved his dog more than anything. He crossed the Rainbow Bridge on June 6th 🥹 I can see him running in the fields chasing bees and butterfly’s. RIP Camo, I’m sure going to miss you but not as much as your best bud Aaron, his hearts broken.
