It is with a heavy heart that I am making this post this morning. Been a very hard last few days.

Our precious Cassie Mae crossed over the Rainbow Bridge this morning.

Our precious Cassie had a end of life appointment at 9:00 this morning.

She had a cancerous tumor on her spleen and it is the kind of cancer that spreads quickly. At her age surgery wasn't an option. She was in a lot of pain and it was time. She has been the best little fur baby and we are already missing her. She has always been the best trouper.

We know that Jesus and the Angels are welcoming her into heaven and helping her find her family.
