

Coco Holland

January 8, 2021

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

TH

“ I still miss you, sweet Coco. ☐💙

Tangie Holland - June 11, 2022 at 04:45 PM

TH

“ It's so hard to say goodbye. Coco, my gentle giant, came to us in Dec 2012 when she was abandoned by her owner next door at an empty house. They had had her for 8 years but he was getting a divorce and left her at his Dad's vacant house. We quickly took her into our clan after we realized she was not eating and extremely scared. She was the sweetest, most gentle dog ever... she was MY baby. I will miss my snuggles with her, the way she pranced when she got excited, my walks with her and having her wait for me until I finished my last lap, and how she would gently lick my hand to return her love. My heart is broken but I know she is no longer feeling pain or having trouble getting up from her bed. Rest Easy, my sweet baby girl I will miss you forever. 💙😭

Tangie Holland - February 02, 2021 at 11:26 AM