

Cooper Lai

June 11, 2025

My gentle giant boy. You are the sweetest & most loving . All the girls falls in love with my boy. He is the happiest whenever he is in the water & mud. Barking & singing are his favorite thing to do. My boy protects us from getting rid of all the insects he sees . You gave us so much joy & wonderful memories for 9 years. I want more years with you but God has other plans. The house is not same without you. Run free over the rainbow bridge. Catch all the tennis balls you want . We love you & we miss you so much , Cooper.
