

Duke Rowe

May 15, 2019

They say all dogs go to heaven, and I really hope that's true because I would love to see my friend again someday. Duke was the most loveable, gentle, smartest, beautiful, hard headed dog you would ever meet. But Duke wasn't really even my dog, he was always my son's dog and they loved each other completely. They played together, ate together, and slept together - an inseparable pair. I know that we will both greatly miss Duke but we will forever be thankful for the joy he brought to our lives during his too short time on this Earth. Duke is the first dog I've ever loved and while I hope he's not the last, I know I will never love a dog as much as I loved him. I also know that I will think of him often and that he will be the best dog I'll ever have.
