“ Felix came into my life not long after my only child was killed. He was killed at 8 years old n it has devastated me to this day. Felix was displaced from a severe storm right into our lives. He was sent by G-D to fill some of the horrific void made by grief from losing my son. My son is my lil man. Felix is my lil boy. Now I have neither of them. Felix made me laugh with his actions and conversations and made me melt with his hugs and purrs. It's just lonely. I love you both Shane and Felix but I will be with both one day again.
