"Florence was the queen diva and ruled the household. She loved to go riding and would prop her arm on the window sill with her head hanging out getting all the breezes she could. She loved her squeaky toy balls, her squeaky stuffed animals, pupperoni, cheese, ice cream, peanut butter and whipped cream. But what she loved the most was her family and we loved her. I miss you so much FloFlo! I wasn't ready to say goodbye! You'll always live in my heart." - Kay Stamba
