“ There aren't enough words to sum up 13 & a half years of unconditional love. Foxy was the smartest, sweetest and most loving dog. Foxy came into our lives when she was only 6 weeks old and was house broken within 30 days. Little did we know she had had stolen our hearts and our lives would never be the same. Foxy was my our first child and my kids have never known a life without her so the grief is tremendous. She kept us laughing and gave hugs right when needed. There is something special about that "man's best friend" bond. Even though our family's hearts are broken we thank God for the time we had together. Rest in the Father's arms Foxy...we love you
