He loved to give smiles . He was a very happy fur-son and he loved everyone. He was very protective of me and the grandbabies. He was 16 in human years(unsure of dog years).

He was the sweetest baby as much as he loved to smile, he loved to give and get lovings. He had separation anxiety and soon as he saw us pulling in it was bark bark bark til we gave him lovings and he would let you know if he didn't get the lovings. We got him at 4 months old and he has brought so much joy to all of us, me and my hubby, our daughters and grandbabies. I miss him deeply, and He will forever live in our hearts.
