"This dog was so much more than a companion... He was a protector, a dance partner, a friend, a karaoke bud, an amazing pet, and a best friend to my other pets. I was so blessed to have spent our 2 and a half years together, and am so happy I got to be his mom. Every single day he tried to be the best dog, son, and friend he could.. I could not have even picked a more perfect baby. I will continue to love him always, and am at a slight peace knowing he is with my other beloved pets I have lost over the past six months. (all unfortunate circumstances)." - Bri Ross
