"My sweet girl. You are gone now from me. I will always miss you. You were the best pup. A diva and a baby all wrapped up in one snuggly pup. I will always love you baby girl. You've left a giant hole in my heart but I wouldn't trade that for anything in the world because then I would have missed out on our amazing life together. I hope you are loving the best life over across the rainbow bridge." - Stacy Millwood

She was a sweetheart! She lives your daddy too, Stacy. She would always jump up in his lap to get her back scratched and then curl up in his arm to go to sleep. 😊
