“ Ike Cotromano Cinnamon came to live with me in 2019 when his mom Tera Cotromano passed away. She was the founder of an animal rescue group called TEARS. Tera was a hero who spent her life rescuing underdogs and even had to bottle feed Ike. When Tera passed, Ike needed a home to retire at and he got to be part of my crew. Even in his old age, he LOVED stuffed animals. The house is full of them because he got a new one every time I walked out the door. His presence made my life better. He was the coolest old man and my house of rescues will forever miss him.
