“ I remember this like it was yesterday. The day you came home. You were 6 wks and I was so in love at first glance. You were terrified, poor dear, as it was the time away from mom and dad. We hit it off nicely though. I quickly got used to your little furry cute self. I miss you with all of my ❤️.

“ Mommy loves you even now, Isaac Poo. You will ALWAYS ALWAYS be my Isaac Poo. I miss you in the worst way. My heart beats differently because of your very beautiful love and because we can't be together now. I can hardly stand this, Isaac.
