12 years ago. I took you into my home. You had been abused, beaten and tied outside to a tree by previous owners. You were passed down from owner to owner to owner. My heart broke for you. God knows you did not deserve that kind of life. I had just lost my first yorkie, and I did not know if I could go through another loss of a pet. It took a year after I took you in, to trust me with your heart. I know God sent you to me. What a comfort you were to me when I was all alone. You saved me.....and I saved you. Thank you God for her! Your paw print is imbedded in my heart forever. Love your human Mom, Gina.
