

Jack Jack Lupien

January 21, 2019

JackJack was born June 12,2005. His parents were Zeke and Daisy. JackJack was a full blood Mini Dachshund.

JackJack met his human mother in July of 2005. His mama fell in love with him the first time she saw his picture and knew that JackJack was meant to be her puppy.

The day she picked him up was one of the happiest days of her life.

He was always happy to see his mama. He was her shadow. If he wasnt in her lap, he was at her feet, or following her. He was truly her best friend. He was her little brown puppy. JackJack enjoyed playing in the backyard and snuggling. He loved when his mama shared her chicken fingers with him and would sit and wait for his share. He was afraid of the wind and didnt like to go outside when it was raining. His favorite time was when he was in his mamas lap or snuggled up next to her at night in her bed.

He spent his days with his dog friend, Delilah and his cat friend, Sweetie. He sunbathed with Sweetie and she taught him how to pounce, because he believed he was part cat. He was very sad when she passed away. He enjoyed running in the backyard with Delilah. Delilah taught JackJack how to be a big dog. Delilah misses him very much.

He loved his family and was very protective. He enjoyed his walks in the front yard with Aislynn. He loved playing with his squeaky toys with Michael and Justin. Visits from Aunt Julie was always a happy time for him and he loved the week he spent at her house. His time at her house was spent chasing butterflies. He loved chasing Julia around the island and felt she was his girl. He didnt care for strangers. It took a long time for someone new to gain his trust. He felt very protective of his family.

Our family was forever changed when JackJack became a part of our family. Our family will never be the same without him.

We will miss him terribly.

His mama is totally lost with him.

JackJack went to the Rainbow Bridge to wait for his mama, on Monday, January 21, 2019.

“Jack Jack was the love of my mom’s life. For 14 years, he was always by her side and always happy to see her. He was a cranky, grouchy, grumpy, sweet, soft, and happy little dog and we’re all missing him so much. One of my favorite things used to be coming home because Jack Jack was always happy to see me, and I loved taking him out for walks in the front yard and checking the mail. Now, I don’t like going to check the mail. But despite all the sadness, I’m happy that we all got so much time with a special little brown puppy. We miss you and love you, Jack Jack, and we know you’re happy now that you’re with Sweetie again.”

Jack Jack when he was a little puppy. He loved to get on the couch with me and watch tv.
