“ Jeri came into our family as a baby in 2003. When we adopted her, we were told she was a he. We named her Jerry for Little Jerry Seinfeld. You probably remember the episode with the rooster on Seinfeld.

Fast forward several years, and while Jerry was nestled in Robert's sweatshirt, "he" laid six eggs and became Jeri.

Jeri was a faithful friend and companion to Robert and our family. We will miss her.
