“ okay your mom (me) is kind of dumb and comments under my own post so don't mind me reposting this jinxy☐ you know i don't know how to work this site😞 hey mama, do you know it's your birthday today? i wish you were here with us so we could be sitting around making your cake like we always do every year.. i would've probably made another apple loaf thing since you seemed to really like that one or like a blueberry version of it since you always liked your fruits, but not so much any veggies. you're four years old, and yet you always acted like you were still <1 years old. goofy little thing i just wanted to remind you again how much i love you and how much everyone here loves you. and that you're quite literally missed every single day..

i hope you're having a nice birthday running around in that forever sunshine and getting all the snacks you can get a hold of my girl.. happy birthday jinxy, mama loves you always. don't you forget that “ it's been a month since well you know, and i keep finding myself watching random videos of you just being a little odd ball like you always were. i hope you know how much we all love and miss you...especially yay, bebe, zeenie, kermie, and bay-lee they all take turns sleeping or sitting near your box and picture from what i've noticed

i miss you like it was yesterday my girl
