“ Harry gave us 13 years of happiness, joy and unconditional love. His love of playing chase and tug of war was notorious and he never tired of these great joys in his life. He loved eating people food, chasing birds and squirrels, cuddling up with you on the sofa or in bed, and digging holes in the yard. The digging lead to baths which he absolutely hated! When he was groomed, he was the most beautiful wire hair terrier you have ever seen. I so miss the little things: feeding him, his excitement when I would return home, rubbing his tummy, the clap clap of the doggie door, his footsteps across the hardwood floors, begging for food when we were eating, sitting at the pantry door waiting for a treat, his snuggling up to me, his barking - I just miss him so very, very much and I hate this empty house. Thank you Lord for giving me this wonderful, wonderful companion and please help to heal this huge hole in my heart. I love you my Harry and I can't wait to see you again and hold you in my arms!!! Have fun playing in Heaven until we are reunited!!
