

Laney Williams

January 7, 2014

Laney was adopted as a pup from the Oktibbeha County Humane Society in Starkville, MS in May of 2000. Her birthday is celebrated each year on April 1.

Laney was a Mississippi State dog and loved living the college life! She hung out with anyone and everyone and frequented the lakes and grassy areas at Research Park and North Farm. She loved to chase tennis balls, lay in monkey grass, and swim. She really loved to swim! Laney was an active dog... She went everywhere and did everything... canoeing trips, beach trips, hiking trips, camping, etc. She did have some favorite activities though... boat rides and rides in the Jeep! But she most enjoyed just being with her family... whether it was a ride in the car, a nap on the bed, going on a trip out of town, or laying in the kitchen while her Dad cooked dinner.

Most of all, Laney just loved... That's what she was best at.

On Jan 7, 2014 she left her Mom and Dad, Jennifer and Lang, as well as her sister, Lucky; her nephew, Trevor; and another sister, Bre. She is also survived by grandparents, Margie and Jeff. One day they'll all be together again.

I miss her too... It's been a month... Still feels like she's here most the time... Until it doesn't... I don't care for that feeling :(

When I think about Laney, I remember all the love she brought with her. She was always a happy little girl and so very sweet. She sure adored her mom, Jeni.
