“ I remember seeing Lexie the first time. She came up to me and looked me in the eyes and was ready to go. She was shy around others and it took a while for her to open up to me as well but we had a great relationship. Lexie was a loving caring gentle soul and she was a good protector. We will miss her.... Her greetings at the door. Her gentle bumps on the elbow. Her steps on the floor during the night.... Will all be missed. In the end, I know in my heart Lexie knew she was loved and will continue to live on within us.

“ Lexie was such a good girl. Not a mean bone in her body. So sweet, and shy for a GSD. We miss her so much, especially her brother Bucky. We feel her presence all around the house and farm, and when I look to the sky I see her looking down at us with a smile and nod that she’s happy, free from pain, and living her best life yet.

Till we meet again, sweet girl, have fun with Kitty and Grandpa James.
