

Lil' Bit Miller

May 22, 2020

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

DM

“ Lil bit was my baby boy since i got him at 6 weeks old chose him from a litter of pups he just called to me i loved him from day one until the end he loved ridding in car and just going in general he was an amazing dog my man from start to finish he loved his daddy and gosh did i love him so so very much he was truly my dog he followed me wherever i went no matter what and he didnt like it if he couldnt he loved barking at every and anything loved to aggravate other dogs thought he was biggest here even though he was smallest he was king my little boy was always the king of the house he loved all of us didnt like strangers though when lily was born and was old enough to play with him they were literally like brother and sister she loved him and him her she misses him too a lot i hope he knows how much he meant to me he was my rock my constant through a lot of bad times. BIT BIT (thats what i called him) I MISS YOU MORE THAN ANYTHING AND I TRULY LOVED YOU AND STILL DO miss u my buddy

LOVE DAD

David Miller - June 04, 2020 at 08:16 PM