“ I'll miss Lovie so much. I remember as a kid visiting my grandmas house I was always excited to see Lovie and to have her curl up and sleep next to me and rub herself against my leg. She was so sweet and so beautiful. Bye sweet girl. We'll always love our Lovie

“ A little story about my Lovie

On Halloween 1997 my son gave me a little black kitten that I named Lovie.

Few months later , I noticed her looking out my window over the driveway as I looked up coming home from work. It was a welcoming sight after a long day at work. Before I could get up to the top of the stairs I could hear a very distinctive loud meow. She was a good listener about that day's problems , therefore making my evenings so much better.

And night she would pat me on my hand or face expressing the desire to sleep for the night. Crawling up on my stomach to sleep.

For these past 20 years she was my faithful and loving companion I'll miss her always
