“ Lucy was probably the best dog a person could have!

She loved to ride in the car with me, head out the window barking at big trucks and people as we would pass by and then she'd look at me with a smile on her face as if she was saying " got that one".

She loved her "spa" days at the clinic! If I ever told her the night before that she'd be going to get a bath the next day, she'd be sitting beside the bed when I woke up, staring at me and then she'd follow me from room to room staying right by my side to make sure that I didn't forget and leave her behind when I left for work.

She will be truly missed in our home but will live forever in our hearts!

Rest easy girl.
