

Macy Jackson

October 7, 2014

"My name is Wade Jackson. Macy was a loved Boston Terrier I had in my life almost 15 years. I got Macy when she was nine months old. She was a rescue dog & the best dog I've ever had. When I got Macy, she was completely trained. She was housebroken & was very intelligent. She would wake me up in the morning with slobbery kisses & wanted me to play with her. She was so smart, she knew when it got dusk to go wait at the window for her daddy to come home. She had full range of the home & never did anything wrong. She was a lap dog. No sitting beside you. It had to be in your lap. She loved sleeping under the covers & up against you. If you moved, she moved...just to be closer to you. When I took her for walks, no collar & leash was needed. She was so obedient. She loved being around children. Macy never had a mean bone in her body. Today has been a month since her passing & it still weighs very heavy on my heart, because she was the first dog I got when I lived on my own & I could have not asked for a better dog. Macy, you will ALWAYS be missed & loved very much!"
