

Meeko Huff

May 11, 2025

I got Meeko when he was 12 weeks old in June of 2014. He had several nicknames ranging from Meeko-Man, Mansy Pansy, Mansy Pants, Bud-Bud, and Buddy-Man. Meeko was goofy, stubborn, greedy, and loving. He taught me responsibility & what it means to truly be loved unconditionally. Meeko never met a stranger. He thought every single person he met was his friend & he would be highly offended if you didn't acknowledge him if he walked past you. Aside from being an "attention seeker", he was a true foodie. Meeko loved all things food. You couldn't open a bag of chips without him peeking out from around the corner, expecting you to share with him. He enjoyed sunbathing in my office & scratching his belly on the carpet. He was with me throughout my early 20's & early 30's. It'll be a hard adjustment being in our house without him here to keep me company. I'll miss him deeply & love him always.

“ The joy Meeko provided was unprecedented. Pictures can't convey the love he gave and received. In a world that sometimes feels dark, the light the emanated from him was truly needed.

“ Meeko was a very energetic little fella. He love all that he meet. He was the sweetest big boy. I'll never forget his Thanksgiving at my house with Dusty the cat and Yummy and Snout.

Will always remember and love our Mr. Meeko forever💕☐💕

Rest well You Very Good Boy☐

“ Meeko was a gentle spirit and amazing companion. His excitement was contagious and I loved each time I saw him. He loved my friend well and will be missed dearly. He may have been small in stature but he was a giant in all the ways it counts! Rest well sweet boy.

Meeko,

You brought so much joy, comfort, and unconditional love into everyone's life you met. You were more than a pet — you were family. You were truly one of a kind, and your paw prints will forever be on my heart.

Rest easy, sweet boy. You were so, so loved.

*Love always,
Aunt Deja*
