“ Little pets, near and dear to our hearts, are all blessings, but Millie Hudson was brought special delivery by angels straight from heaven. No sweeter dog has ever walked the earth or endured so much pain with so little complaint. Millie was a mini rat terrier that was skin and bones when we first got her. She came to us as a rescue dog through the Blue Ridge Animal Clinic, having been treated for leg injuries from being hit by a car. She almost lost her leg twice, but due to the love and awesome skill of one special vet at the clinic, Millie grew up to enjoy life with only a slight limp and arthritis in one of her four legs. She was a tiny rat terrier, but her personality loomed large, as she won the hearts of all humans and other pets she met. Her fortitude was tested over and over. She almost died from a bite to her face by a copperhead snake, but her tenacity for life pulled her through. A few years later, she was attacked by a coyote, and once again, she rallied. Then later, even when her kidneys begin to fail her, she never complained of pain or hesitated to go for a car ride. She gave us all the love that anyone could expect from a pet and then some. Little Millie, you will be forever in our hearts!
