“ Kris, you are the best foster mom I have ever known. Your heart is so big you'd rescue them all. But a few will always hold a special place, and for you, Nae Nae was one them. Now Nae Nae joins Keke and you know they will both have a place to roam with each other. Stay strong my dear friend. I know your heart is hurting, but I'm sending more love than one heart can handle so it won't be filled with grief. Love you, Wilder

“ It's hard to pick a single memory of such a sweet and serving fur baby, I know she loved her mom just as much as she was loved and she played a very appreciated role in a life that's special to me and it hurts my heart that she is no longer with us. She was a sweet and sassy diva, a great companion and service pet and I'm glad she got to live the life she did with you, I send my condolences to you Kris and I wish you the peace you deserve 💚 RIP Nae Nae

“ I remember first meeting NAE NAE she was very fun to be around and she will be missed. My favorite memory was thanksgiving when we had the Macy's day thanksgiving parade on TV and I put the lil red bow on her! And how she sat with me whenever I came to visit, and I was doing my work on the computer!

“ My beloved NaeNae Cinnamon is so terribly missed in her home. I look for her everywhere. Nae had such a loving and playful personality. Her favorite activities were treat time and nap time. She loved to roll around in freshly cut grass. She got to go on so many road-trips and met new friends everywhere we went. I carried her everywhere like a baby. She was a child to me. She slept right next to me every night and I keep reaching for her in my sleep. This loss has been devastating to me. She loss her hearing in this last year, but it didn't slow her down. I even taught her to read hand signals. What a little genius. She is SO very missed. Look for me at the Rainbow Bridge, Nae the Bae. Mom loves you and the other rescues miss you so much.

I would often check in on the dogs for Kris over the years. Nae was always the quiet one who went about her business while the others sought attention from me, but would she'd usually stop for a moment to get a pet in before letting me know she wanted to go back to her room. Never gave any trouble. She was loved and will be missed.
