“ To my nickypoo:

Your energetic ways bought smiles to our faces. Your awkwardness tickled me. Your love showed loyalty, even when at times it was undeserving. My first pet. It was so hard seeing you put up a fight. You have showed me that once again time is valuable. That although life is not perfect, do all that your heart desires. Most importantly you taught me to never wait until it's too late. Make your time count everyday. Give love & strive as long as you are breathing. I felt like it was too late, time passed me by. It's amazing how so many lessons and feelings come from something so special, yet had no words for me to hear. I appreciate being blessed with such a lovely life lesson like you. I can now say that I have found peace in knowing that what we done was out of love. I never said the words goodbye because truly you still feel here with me. I love you forever & always my nicky baby ♡

“ My dear precious Nicky Bell, having you in my life was uncountable. Your PATIENCE has taught me resilience. Your SMARTNESS taught me how to have the ability to analyze issues and think critically. Your Joy has taught me to be more open-minded and turn my worries into relaxation. Your LOVE has taught me how to build a strong foundation of communication and trust. Your STRIDE has taught me to have confidence. Your DEATH has brought me pain, interpretation of a daily routine, guilt, and a deep sense of emptiness. Your special MEMORIES, which are so many, will continue to be with me. I will love u always❤️

“ I fell in love with Nicky, the very first moment I met him. I was visiting my daughter, who was living on the South side of Birmingham, Alabama. Nicky was so well behaved that even the neighbors were not aware of his existence. Later, when the family moved into their new home, he made up for being so quiet by barking when he felt like it, as the surrounding was more spacious. One thing for sure he remained a friendly loving dog. I for one, thought he knew that I was his Grandma, for my greetings was always warm and loving.
There will always be a special place in my heart for Nicky, for these memories are imprinted there forever. Love, Grandma💕💕

“ Nicky, from the moment I met you, I saw your resilience, charm, and the potential to forge a lasting love within our family. You've inspired us all to reflect on our life choices and consider whether we've loved and contributed enough to those we cherish. We will always treasure the precious memories of you. Your unconditional love for each family member has deeply moved us. You've motivated us to embrace each other while we still can. Greet Dymond and Sassy with a loving tail wag. Our hearts will forever hold love for each of you. Auntie🐾🐾 L

“Nicky wasn't just a pet to me he was a part of our family. When you think of letting go of someone your first initial feelings would probably be sadness. However, for me it was a feeling of understanding. Nicky watched me grow up all these years without having any idea on how much of an impact he had on all of us. He watched me through out all his life while I watched the beginning and end of his. As time goes by he will never fade away and will never be forgotten by the people who loved him most. Always by our sides and forever in our hearts.

NICKY BELL
