“ I remember when Amber decided it would be fun to play peek a boo (where Amber would look down and then go RAWR! to Nissan 😂) with Nissan 😂😂 Nissan didn't think it was funny and nipped Amber.... Amber goes Oh My Gosh!! And then giggles because Nissan scared her back... It was only after I said something that she realized Nissan had actually gotten her face a little. To this day Amber has a small scar from our sweet fursis. And I have a super funny memory I hope lasts a lifetime ❤️

“ I remember every memory that goes with every photo of sweet Nissy. I love you and miss you, but will see you again one day.
