

Odie Self

December 30, 2023

"OD loved living in the country. He could be in the woods a half mile away, if you whistled or called his name he'd come running. When we moved to the city, OD was such a good boy, he only escaped the fence when his brother Wolfie escaped. They would stay in the neighborhood because OD would get tired. OD only barked if he got scared." - Michele Self
