“ My sincerest condolences to you auntie. I know it is hard losing Otis. He was your fur baby and companion for many years and he was your family. Otis had such a beautiful coat, and in his prime he was a lil chunky so my nickname for him was "Garfield" because he looked like the cat from the comics. Otis had gone on to his rewards to play with all the yarn balls and feathers he wants. R.I.P. Otis.

wanda Jemison - December 13, 2021 at 10:57 PM

“ I remember naming you. A feline named Milo who traveled with his good friend, a canine, who was smart, funny, handsome and well-loved. Well, Milo was an orange tabby cat like you but Otis, a pug, was a star. That's you, O-T! Now that you are in the stars looking over Mom I want you to remember that I love you little brother. Our relationship is something nobody could understand except for Mom. inserts a lick and a hiss Thank you for being such an awesome companion and for being under the steps before I moved away. Never gone, your spirit remains! Love on Whymblic for me. 🐾🐾🐾🐾

“ I remember the first time I came over and saw Otis. At first I was scared of him because he hissed at me when I tried to pet him. But as time went on, he warmed up to me little by little when I would come over. Otis was a light that will continue to shine brightly.

I can imagine what the loss of a pet means to an owner. It is truly a heartbreaking experience. Keep looking at the tender moments spent with Otis. He can't be replaced but getting another pet will ease the pain. RIP Otis. Cousin Deb.

Your love for Otis is so pure and true he shall never be replaced. He was so special. I use to love hearing the many stories about Otis. Remembering the time he put your hair ties, rollers in the commode and you told I'm going to whip your a___. I love Otis too. Lifting you up in prayer. Shirley
