“ Otto was technically rescued as a puppy when he was adopted by Mark & Joette Fredrickson. What they did not know at the time, was that Otto really rescued them. He was a loving, loyal companion all of his nearly fourteen years on this Earth. He quickly bonded with Mark, becoming his very best friend. He helped Mark in his everyday life by providing companionship. Otto was a big support to Mark during some of life's more difficult journeys. Otto was there to celebrate the good times in life. The duo enjoyed numerous activities together, his favorites being outdoors. Otto loved to go on daily walks, take trips to the lake where he would run or swim, and he loved people. Everyone Otto came in contact with was met with a tooth-showing smile. This is how Otto received the nickname "Smiling Pete". Otto loved Mark and the rest of his family so much. Otto is survived by a sister dog, Meisha, and a brother cat, Cooper. Otto's family misses him dearly but is at peace knowing he is no longer in pain.
