October 7, 2024

peluche was great to us for 14 years, he brought us so much joy and happiness. his death was so unexpected but he's in dog heaven running around and having fun with other dogs like he loved to do. everyone loved you like there own. i wasn't done loving you, so many years we spent together going on walks and talking to you at night when i had no one. it feels so weird without you peluche. you are so missed my love. see you soon peluche
