“ Peter Mitchell loved everyone that treated him well. 80% of his day was spent sitting in someone's Lap. At bedtime he made sure he slept on your neck or back. He was a working dog at my husband's Law Firm. Tensions can certainly grow in the legal field. Peter was the calming, loving force in the office. No matter what was going on, our sweet boy knew how to change a person's hostility into laughter. We will miss and love him forever. See you at the Rainbow Bridge, Peter Bug.
