“ hi pip, miss u everyday, you were the cutest puppy probably ever. the house feels so much emptier without you, but i'm happy you're home now. in my room with me. you're in the sun, sunbathing away and now you can look out my window forever, watching the birds and cars, and mom doing yard work. i miss you a lot today but im happy you feel better now. i hope we see each other again. love you
