Karma and I came to the vet to bring our cat for a visit. I would never have imagined that I would see you and fall in love with you and bring you home that very day. I don't know what you went through before you came to us, but you changed my life. You were my first dog that was mine and mine alone. I wish you could have stayed longer, but I know were sick for the last couple months. I just hope you know how much I love you and how much I miss you and how lonely the house is without you in it. I also want you to know that when I leave this world for good, my first stop will be at the rainbow bridge, and we'll never be apart again. Thank you for being my dog.
