

Rosemary Manzella

September 6, 2012

Rosemary Manzella Born: October 18, 2006 Died: Sept. 6, 2012 at the age of 5.

Nicknames: Rosie, Rose, Rosebud

As a puppy, Rosemary was an “adorable bundle of joy” with long floppy ears and big feet. She grew into her awkward body quickly, transforming into elegance and beauty. Rosemary was a loving, loyal companion and brought the family much happiness. She treasured spending time with her uncles, aunts, cousins (both human and canine), and family friends. Rosie enjoyed sitting at the front door, anxiously awaiting her family’s arrival and would begin shaking her “booty” and then, her whole body upon seeing them. She would stay at the front door until she felt everyone had arrived.

Rosie embraced others by putting her paws upon their shoulders and placing her face next to theirs or letting them rest their head upon her chest.

Rosemary indulged her momma singing songs with her name and nicknames in them. She proudly donned the latest fashions in dresses, coats, and costumes and loved riding shotgun in the car, strapped in her harness and seatbelt.

Rosie’s pastimes included playing ball, basking in the sun, turning circles and playing chase, watching westerns on TV, and playing with her toys. She especially loved de-stuffing her toys, sitting on the screened - in porch, stretching out in front of a fire, and eating ice cream cones.

Rosie's death was too premature but the five years we had with her were truly wonderful. Rosemary will be greatly missed by her family.

Rest in peace my sweet, beautiful, precious Rose. You brought Momma so much comfort and happiness. I will love and miss you forever.

The family would like to express our sincere appreciation to Dr. Susan Stark and her staff at South Shades Crest Animal Clinic for the excellent care given Rosemary during her illness and for the loving support given to the family. God bless you all.

“ As the holidays approach, I keep thinking about how weird Aunt Vickie's house is going to be without Rosemary (and her various cold weather and Christmas outfits).

Miss that crazy little girl!

*Love,
Christina*

“ I have been thinking about you Rosie. We all miss you so much!! I miss your little wiggle butt most of all. I loved meeting you at front door and wiggling with you!! You were also such a well behaved dog. I am going to miss your little prissy self sitting so well in the car like a human. I am glad you are not in pain anymore, but I miss you so much!! Rest In Peace Rosie!

*Love you,
Cousin Angela*

*Look not for where I was
For I am not there
My spirit is free
I am everywhere
Smile in my memory
Remember in your heart
That this isn't the ending
but a brand new start.*
