“ Rosie was always making us laugh. She had these moments where she all of a sudden had a burst of energy and would run around everywhere. If she wasn't running around, she would hide under the dining room table cloth and wait for us to walk by. Right as we got past the table she would come from under it and grab our legs and keep running. My most favorite memory is when I would lay down for bed, she would hop up on my bed and come lay on my chest and just love me. She got me through the hardest times of my life and I will always think about her, love her and miss her.
